

VBPD Training Alumni Association Disclaimer

It is a goal of the Alumni Development Program that Alumni feel encouraged and empowered to inform, educate and advocate in their communities and on a state and federal level.

The individual and collective commitment that Alumni develop in advocacy and systems change, lead to the creation of a better tomorrow for all Virginians with disabilities and their families.

The Board wants and encourages Alumni to express their views and their positions and recommend actions that they think are appropriate. However, the Board should always be acknowledged as the Funder of the Alumni Development Program. The following Disclaimer should be included when referencing the Alumni Development Program:
