

Deb Lochart is the Director of the Office of Human Rights at the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services. A graduate of Marywood College in Scranton Pennsylvania, Mrs. Lochart and her family re-located to Virginia in 1988. Since beginning her service with the Department in 2005, Ms. Lochart has held multiple positions within the Office of Human Rights. She was an advocate at the Northern Virginia Training Center and quickly moved into the position of regional manager. In response to the DOJ Settlement Agreement, she was brought to Richmond to develop a DD specific team that would monitor the post move monitoring process for individuals being discharged from the training centers. In 2014 she assumed the role of State Human Rights Director. Before working at the Department she held multiple roles at the Rappahannock Area Community Services Board to include functioning as their internal human rights advocate. Mrs. Lochart and her husband live in Fredericksburg.
