

Elizabeth (Betsey) Wildhack is a partner at the small Arlington firm of Thompson Wildhack, PLC. Her practice focuses primarily on elder law and estate planning/ administration. Betsey grew up in Arlington. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Virginia, and her law degree from Washington College of Law at American University. Since 2008, she has served as Assistant Commissioner of Accounts for the 17th Judicial Circuit (Arlington County and the City of Falls Church) having general quasi-judicial supervision of court appointed fiduciaries (e.g., executors, conservators, and trustees). Betsey was honored to receive the Arlington County Human Rights Commission's James B. Hunter Human Rights Award for pro bono work on behalf of the elderly and disabled.