

Elizabeth Seward is the Housing Advisor for Virginia's Medicaid agency, the Department of Medical Assistance Services, where she oversees the agency's housing program and policy initiatives including the new 1115 waiver program for supportive housing. Previously, Elizabeth was the Director of Statewide Housing Initiatives at Virginia Housing. Her role supported the development and management of statewide housing initiatives pursuant to Executive Order 25, which includes expanding permanent supportive housing, reducing evictions, and advancing economic development goals across the Commonwealth. Previously at VHDA, Elizabeth managed numerous grant programs and various community revitalization loan funds to advance the Division of Community Outreach's strategic plan. Elizabeth previously worked for the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development overseeing the development and implementation of numerous large-scale community development projects across the City. She graduated from Virginia Commonwealth University with a bachelor of arts in History and the University of Iowa with a bachelor of arts in Economics. She received her Master of Regional Planning from Cornell University.
